

Wings of Wisdom

What an excellent, amazing, awesome, outstanding, inspiring day!

Thank you to everyone who helped make this one of the greatest Cluster Gatherings ever! The food was amazing and the service was outstanding—thank you, Glenda Heist and Lisa Twitty, and your many helpers—including the gorgeous guys in sparkling white shirts who were our servers and LoGene Test who decorated 12 dozen dove cookies! The music was awesome. Thank you, Margaret Seba—you always make everything work. Thank you, Sarah Stephenson, for leading the singing and for joining Jim Nugent in a performance that wowed everyone—thanks, Jim, for sharing your talent. Thank you, Addy Lawson and Hannah Hoang—the audience LOVED you! And thanks to Amy Talbot for accompanying our girls. It's always good to have Amy back at United. Thank you to Sara Scott for telling us about Village house, and thanks to everyone who brought gifts, including Thrivent Financial who will be providing Village house staff with new shirts thanks to a Community Action Grant. Thank you to Jane Nelson and Theda Hall, our co-presidents, and Carole Walford, our treasurer, who have been inspiring in their leadership. Thank you, Kelsey Sojka, for being willing to represent our cluster on the Synod board next year. Thank you to Pastor Karen who always comes early, stays late, takes care of all the details, and who leads the most amazing devotions. And thank you, thank you, thank you to our Bible study leader, Sarah Stevenson. Sarah, we love you. You are one of God's greatest gifts to United. We are so proud to call you sister. Thank you to everyone who came, everyone who helped, and everyone who shared this great day with us! God is Good!
